All athletes must be drug-free according to the SNBF anti-doping list. All athletes must present their ID or passport at the check-in and at the day of the championship. The check-in will take place on Friday, Oct 29, 2021. The exact time will be communicated by the SNBF. A no-show will lead to a 2-year ban. Polygraph and urine testing according to WADA will be performed on the day of check-in. Testing is performed randomly or on suspicion. This test is valid for the SNBF Swiss Championship as well as for all WNBF/INBF affiliates. Refusal to take the test is considered a positive test result and leads to a 10-year ban. WNBF polygraph tests taken and passed within the last six weeks prior to the Swiss show will be accepted.

The top three athletes must pass a urine test according to WADA standards, which will be taken immediately after the show. In case of a positive test result, the athlete will lose the ranking and will be banned according to the decision of the SNBF anti-doping commission. The athlete will be informed in writing. The WNBF will be informed about the positive test result and the sanctions, which are valid internationally. The athlete accepts the test results and sanctions as legally binding and will not take any legal actions against SNBF or the assigned examiners.

The athlete grants SNBF the free-of-charge right to use any media such as pictures or videos taken at the event for any SNBF promotional purposes such as website, social media, promotional posters or flyers.

Participation in the competition is only guaranteed if all fees are paid on time. The SNBF reserves the right to refuse the athlete's participation without giving reasons.
